

September Newsletter

Off to a Great Start

The NEW Covey Awards have gotten off to a great start. Although we missed the first week of September, we still managed to collect 29 Cover entries for September, just 1 shy of the maximum of 30. This is excellent, particularly given the hiccup caused when the old site shut down in August. Thanks to everyone for their participation.

International Traffic

The site is getting a lot of traffic, which is good news for everyone. We've had over 500 visits from almost 300 unique visitors! Even more exciting is where our visitors are coming from.

The United States and Canada are the top two, followed by the United Kingdom, Australia, Japan, South Africa, Singapore, Israel, France, Chile, Brazil, Finland, Mexico, Slovakia, Switzerland, Thailand, Spain, Palestinian Territory, Denmark, Norway, Malaysia, and Germany!

That's 22 countries, making The NEW Covey Awards a truly International Award program.

The Polls are OPEN!

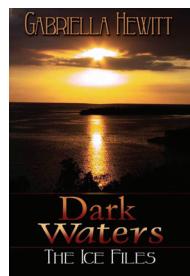

These thumbnails of our current entrants don't do justice to these beautiful covers. Visit the site at The NEW Covey Awards to see a larger version of the covers, read the back cover / synopsis and learn more about the authors and cover artists. Then vote for your favorite.

There are two polls.

Most Eye-Catching Cover - the cover that makes you stop and pick up the book to either read the back cover or the first chapter.

Most Relevant Cover - the cover that most closely matches the Back Cover / Synopsis.

Polls are located on right sidebar or you can open them in a new window by clicking the poll you want in the Related Links Section.
