Voting & Awards

Voting problems continue to plague the site. Part of the reason for the delay in the November Newsletter was due to our search for a remedy to this problem. Compounding the problem, the free online poll system used, Poll Daddy, went through an upgrade this month and some of the polls allowed repeat voters (note: this hasn't been confirmed with Poll Daddy but all the polls have the Block Repeat Voters option selected).

Some visitors sent some suggestions in and we have a potential solution that will be unveiled in the December Newsletter, effective starting in 2008.

As previously stated The NEW Covey Awards are entirely public opinion driven. Author or Artist popularity, buddy lists, and poll spoofing are symptomatic of most public polls that don't require any validation.

All entries benefit from another authors or artists popularity and to a lesser extent from their buddy lists. Poll spoofing and repeating voting help no one and detract from the perceived fairness and value of The NEW Covey Awards.

Trailer Awards

November was the first month for the Trailer Awards and it appears to be well received.

Unfortunately a Newsletter isn't the proper vehicle to preview these Trailers but visit The NEW Covey Awards and click on the selection for the Trailer Awards to see some of these amazing trailers. Some have been professionally edited and some put together by the authors themselves but they are all worth viewing.

Visit The NEW Covey Trailer Awards for more details regarding submissions.

Site Redesign

We redesigned the site to showcase both the Cover Awards and the Trailer Awards.

Visitors to The NEW Covey Awards will be presented with the choice of which reward site they would like to visit. This provides better exposure for everyone and make site navigation easier.
